

THE WHITE DOVE OF PEACE

Settles Down Upon the Turbulent Domestic Relations of the Hartz Family.

Queer Claim Against the Rice Estate—Arguments in the McClure Trial—Court Miscellaneous.

The first ending of the Hartz domestic troubles has been reached and Mr. and Mrs. Hartz will resume the marital relations at the point where they were broken off by the proceedings in court for divorce, damages, habeas corpus, etc. Yesterday the case in Room 3 of George Hartz against Marshall J. Groves asking damages for the alienation of his wife's affections was dismissed at the defendant's cost. In Room 2, where so much feeling was displayed in the very technical fight late Wednesday afternoon, by agreement among the parties, the motion for a change of venue filed by Mrs. Hartz was withdrawn and the case redocketed in that court. Hartz then dismissed his cross-complaint under an agreement that the plaintiff pay the costs. Then, by agreement, the habeas corpus proceedings for the possession of the eight-year-old boy were redocketed, and the defendant granted leave to withdraw her appeal, and the parties upon the appeal bond relieved from any liability. The court then, in accordance with an agreement between the parties, set aside its former order in the case regarding the custody of the child, and the case was dismissed and stricken from the files.

The amicable settlement of differences was reached yesterday morning, and Mr. and Mrs. Hartz will again assume the relations as husband and wife, and make one more trial.

Absurd Claim Against the Rice Estate.
A very peculiar claim was filed in the probate commissioner's room yesterday afternoon against the estate of James H. Rice. Vincent Plaza, an Italian barber employed at the Palmer House barbers, claims that he is entitled to the estate of Rice for the amount of money he borrowed from Rice on Oct. 25, 1892. Aside from the improbability of Rice borrowing money from a barber, another very peculiar fact in connection with the claim is the fact that the money alleged to have been borrowed twenty days after Rice's death, as he died on the 5th day of October, 1892. Plaza was for a while employed as a barber, but was discharged, and was befriended by Rice. He attached some importance in Democratic politics as a vice politician, and the Italian trial vendors of his nationality.

To Recover for Burned Furniture.
Carrie Brown has sued Charles H. Fiske seeking to recover $500 damages for the loss of household goods. The plaintiff leased from the defendant apartments in a two-story tenement house at No. 111 Metcalfe street, and the furniture of the same house being occupied by a family named Cooper. An addition was built to that portion of the house occupied by the Coopers, and a fire pipe passed through the wall connecting with a kitchen stove. This pipe became overheated, and the night time the house was burned to the ground, and with it the household goods of the plaintiff, for the loss of which she sues.

Arguments in the McClure Murder Trial.
The usual crowd assembled in the Criminal Court room yesterday at the resumption of the McClure murder trial. The morning was occupied by evidence on the part of the State in rebuttal. At Frank Loebe and Marion Elmore, in "Eagle's Nest."

Manic Strikers Released.
J. L. Yates, who was connected with the Lake Erie & Western strike at Niles, was yesterday released from the jail at Noblesville, and also Philip Nixon, another of the strikers. There is now only one of the strikers in jail, Bailey, and he is wanted on a more serious charge.

Railroad Tax Cases.
The State Tax Commissioner met yesterday at the Auditor's office and entered an order directing the Attorney-General to go to Washington and seek to have the railroad cases advanced on the Supreme Court docket.

Was Ignited by a Spark.
Samuel Pursell, a farmer residing near the town of Nora, filed suit against the Monon, asking $300 for the destruction of a wheat stack which was ignited by a spark from a passing engine.

The Court Record.
